

FLIPPING DOUBT
WisdomFest 2015

*“O LORD, how long shall I cry for help, and you will not hear?
Or cry to you ‘Violence!’ and you will not save?
Why do you make me see iniquity,
and why do you idly look at wrong?”*

Habakkuk 1:1-3a

Flip your doubt to see its faith assumptions.

- _____ your doubts as statements of faith (1:1-3, 12-17).

What I seem to believe is . . .

“The only way to doubt Christianity rightly and fairly is to discern the alternate belief under each of your doubts and then to ask yourself what reasons you have for believing it. How do you know your belief is true?... In fairness you must doubt your doubts.”

- Tim Keller

- _____ your assumptions to God (1:2, 12).

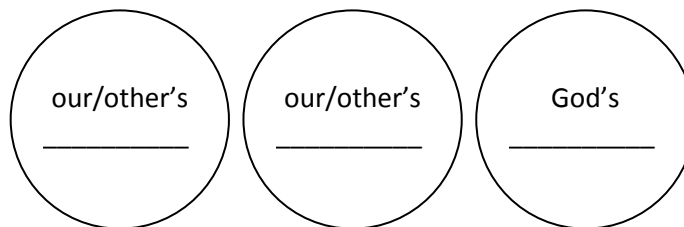

Evaluate the authority behind your assumptions.

- _____ for God's response (2:1).
- _____ your authority to God (2:2-4, 18-20).

"tablet" – ten commandments language.

"so he may run who reads it" - _____ language.

Three sources of authority:

- _____ God's sufficient revelation (2:20-3:2).

Fuel your joy with the story of God's faithfulness.

- _____ the pivotal points in God's story of redemption (3:3-15).
- _____ in the middle of mystery (3:17-19).

"take joy" – shout in exultation / dance in a _____.
