

A New King

Psalm 2

12/17/17

Underlying question: Who is the truly happy person?

Psalm 2

- The _____ speaks (1-3)
 - The mood: one of _____, turmoil, and _____
 - The action: The nations are rebelling against _____ and His _____.

- _____ speaks (4-6)
 - The mood: one of being _____ and resolute
 - The action: God has established His _____ at Zion (Jerusalem).

- The _____ speaks (7-9)
 - The mood: one of _____ and confidence
 - The action: The new king declares two things to be true: He is God's _____, and He has been given _____ over all nations.

- The Narrator/_____ speaks (10-12)
 - The mood: one of _____, urging and _____
 - The action: The nations can either _____ or continue to _____ God's Son.

Jesus as the Fulfillment of Psalm 2

Jesus is declared to be King at His...

- _____ – Luke 1:30-33
- _____ – Luke 3:21-22
- _____ – Luke 9:28-36
- _____ – Acts 4:24-28

- _____ – Romans 1:4
- _____ – Revelation 19:11-16

Application

- Have I experienced the blessedness of taking refuge in Jesus?
- What if I have taken refuge in Jesus, but I am not experiencing a blessed life?
 - There may be _____ in my life.
 - I may be _____ on the wrong object.
 - I may be taking _____ in something other than Jesus.
 - I will not experience the _____ blessing this passage promises me until Jesus _____.