How are we supposed to think about _____ today?

- The subject of miracles, signs, and wonders is NOT a _____ of the Bible.

"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in Me will also do the works that I do; and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father."

John 14:12

- Miracles, signs and wonders _____ after New Testament times.

"In like manner we do also hear many brethren in the church who possess prophetic gifts and through the Spirit speak all kinds of languages. ...Yes, moreover, as I have said, the dead even have been raised up, and remained among us for many years."

Irenaeus

- Miracles, signs and wonders have usually been confined to _____ of Christianity.

When people hear about what God used to do, one of the things they say is, "Oh that was a very long time ago." They imagine the times have altered since then. "Things were in a different state then from what they are now."

Has God changed? Is He not...the same yesterday, to-day, and forever? Nay, I think I may push it a little further, and say what He has done once is a prophecy of what He intends to do again - that the mighty works which have been accomplished in the olden time shall all be repeated...

Others among you say, "Oh well, I look upon these things as great...miracles. We are not to expect them every day." That is the very reason why we do not get them. If we had learnt to expect them, we should no doubt obtain them, but we put them up on the shelf, as being out of the common order of our moderate religion, as being mere curiosities of Scripture history. We...cannot imagine them to be according to the ordinary working of His mighty power.

Let us take the blame of it ourselves, and with earnestness seek that God would restore to us the faith of the men of old, that we may richly enjoy His grace as in the days of old.

Charles Spurgeon
