

“The Christian is the really free person – he is free to have imagination. This too is our heritage. The Christian is the one whose imagination should fly beyond the stars.”

Francis Schaeffer

“Paradoxically, poetry is an expression of the fact that there are great things that are inexpressible. There is no one-to-one correspondence between the depths of human experience and capacities of language to capture that experience. There are experiences that go beyond the ability of language to express them.

“For the poet, this limitation of language does not produce silence; it produces poetry. Poetry is a kind of verbal resistance to the impenetrability of human experience.”

John Piper

- How we think about _____ _____ or _____?
- How we think about corporate _____
Our _____ can take us places our mind can never go.
- How we think about _____
If you lose the wonder, you have lost the _____ of the Christmas story.

“And behold, you will conceive in your womb and bear a Son, and you shall call His name _____.”

Luke 1:31

And Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, since I am a virgin?"

And the angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the Child to be born will be called Holy - the Son of God. For nothing will be impossible with God."

And Mary said, "Behold, I am the servant of the Lord; let it be to me according to Your word."
Luke 1:33-37

Magnificat anima mea Dominum =
"My soul doth _____ the Lord."

What is your Magnificat?