

Question: What does my eating company demonstrate about my eschatology?

1. An _____

- “Sinners” -
 - Outcast -
 - (Self-) Righteous -
- ▶ Jesus was _____ with his invitation.

2. An _____

- ▶ Entrance isn’t based on _____, but

Our Disconnects

1. Fear - What will be the impact on our kids if we don’t connect with others as Jesus did?
2. Rejection - Rather than be vulnerable, we _____.
3. Disgust - “this son of yours”
4. Distraction - “I’ve bought a field.”
5. Misunderstanding - of where _____ lies
6. Judgment - Sit on the _____ bench.
7. Indifference - “suku terabaikan” = “a people _____”

_____.

3. A _____

- ▶ _____ am the sinner!
- ▶ “Your _____ on me. My _____ on you. You’re welcome at my table. Only _____.”

To the degree we understand what this Host did to welcome us to himself—we will actively, joyfully, inconveniently, vulnerably, creatively, “riskily” pursue all others to fill in every seat.

- ▶ What would happen if each person at North Hills Church was dubbed “a friend of _____ and _____”?

Interactive Reflection

- Who is the person near me that Jesus would be inviting/welcoming, but I’m not? Am I “in my own universe,” or am I inviting others into my community?
- Which of the disconnects most resonates with my current experience? What truth about the Host do I need to most reflect on to re-warm my heart for those around me?

