 Why do God's people need to hear these comforting voices?

- Broader context -
- Immediate context -

"Comfort, comfort my people, says your God." (1)

He commissions voices to ...

1. Speak to their _____ -
"Speak tenderly to Jerusalem"

tenderly =

2. About their _____ -
"and cry to her that her warfare is ended"

warfare =

3. About their _____ -
"that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins."

double =

"I begin to suspect that the world is divided not only into the _____ and the _____, but into those who like _____ and those who, odd as it seems, _____."

C.S. Lewis

If God is persistently commissioning voices to comfort/renew you, what is holding you back?
